

Safety Instructions for the SAR 2022

General

The person in charge of a boat have the overall responsibility for all Safety functions and common safety equipment for the respective boat.

Every crewmember have responsibility regarding her/his personal Safety equipment, i.e. Life West etc.

Safety Equipment List

The Safety Equipment list is published on:

<https://www.stockholmarchipelagoraid.com/onb2022/>

It's also found in NoR, Addendum A.

Electronic Emergency Equipment

The most important electronic equipment are your VHF and your mobile phones! ALWAYS keep them well charged, and the phone in a waterproof and preferably floatable case.

Fasten your VHF e.g. on the boom and keep your phone in a pocket on your sailing gear.

AIS Emergency (MOB) Transmitters, PLB's and EPIRB Transmitters (Optional) may be carried by participants by your own choice, but are NOT mandatory during the SAR 2022.

Leaving a race due to technical or other reason

The person in charge of a boat retiring from a race shall, and is obliged to, notify the Race Committee immediately upon retirement by VHF channel 71 and/or phone number +46-76-835 39 82.

A boat not starting shall inform the Race Office without delay, phone number as above.

Leaving a race due to an accident, injury or other disabling incident

The person in charge of a boat retiring from the race shall, and is obliged to, notify the Race Control/Safety officer immediately upon retirement by VHF channel 71 and/or phone number +46-76-835 39 82.

If necessary, notify the Safety officer or another Race official boat to get assistance.

If equipped, use PLB's or other technical Emergency Equipment ONLY in a grave situation, when other means of communication have failed.

Call for external Emergency assistance

-On VHF use Channel 16 to make an Emergency call ("MAYDAY").

-On phone call 112 and ask for Search-and-Rescue (SAR) assistance ("Sjöräddning"). You will be connected to the Swedish Joint Rescue Coordination Centre (JRCC).

Use the following means to reach Race officials (save phone number!)

VHF channel 71

Race Officer/Race Committee Håkan Andersson: +46-70-531 08 60

Safety Officer Lars Carlsson: +46-76-835 39 82
